

Features & Benefits

Series 886 Hose Reel - Air/Water/Cleaning

Intended use: For compressed air, water, for general washdown use in the food industry where convenient hose storage is needed.

Where used: Food processing plants, fisheries, canneries, Beverage processing plants and bakery's.

Features and Benefits:

- Non-corrosive components, suitable for inside or outside installation.
- All stainless steel construction including fluid path.
- Open design for Safety and aesthetics.
- Highest quality component construction, non-marking hose.
- Smooth sloping surfaces for easy cleaning.
- Easy assembly, instructions enclosed.
- Roller hose outlet to provide most efficient outlet angle for the delivery hose
- Easily disassembled hose outlet for cleaning.
- Hygienic design.
- Ratchet to stop drum rotation at desired hose length.
- Automatic hose recoil by pulling past ratchet, then releasing hose.
- Adjustable hose outlet for optimum angle.
- Hose stop collar adjustable to set delivery hose length at desired position.
- Fits any mounting configuration Wall, ceiling or bench mount flexibility.
- Fixed or portable mount capability.
- Economical for the quality and expected useful life of the tool.
- Highest quality unit available and longest useful life of any comparable size reel.
- Two year warranty, excludes misuse or abuse.
- Extensive factory testing prior to market introduction
- ISO 9001 certified.
- Manufactured by a worldwide company known for quality, safety, and products to improve the workspace
- No need for maintenance or frequent parts replacement, long useful hose life easy hose replacement assembly when needed