

Pressrelease

Helsingborg 24th February 2009

Nederman gives notice that affects 24 employees.

As informed in the Financial Statement on the 13th of February Nederman has prepared cost cutting plans to meet a decrease in the company's sales due to a weaker market. Parts of these plans will now be carried out.

Nederman has today given notice that affects 24 employees working in the production unit in Helsingborg. The notice affects both white collar and blue collar workers.

Negotiations with the unions will commence immediately.
