

Case Story

Robotic welding in Canada

Situation:

At Eberspacher North America, Toronto, Canada they have fume problems from robotic welding process in a tier II automotive supplier setting.

Solution:

To get rid of the welding fumes three FilterMax 9000 were installed, each one connected to four custom made canopy hoods. The result is a very clean and tidy working place environment.

For more info, please contact: Mr Joseph Collins, Nederman Canada, Canada
E-mail: joseph@nedermancanada.com